Chapter 421: The Emergence of the God Tree

The Evolution of the Third World Tree

Deep within the heart of the Godverse, Sung Jin-Woo nurtured the Third World Tree, the greatest of its kind. Over time, it absorbed the boundless energy of the Godverse, evolving into the God Tree—a singular, omnipotent entity that surpassed all other trees in existence.

The God Tree towered above the Godverse, its celestial branches stretching across infinite realms. Its shimmering leaves radiated divine energy, while its roots delved deep into the fabric of existence, intertwining with the essence of creation.

The Fruits of the God Tree

The God Tree bore fruits unlike any other. Each fruit contained the concentrated power of the Godverse, capable of birthing godly creatures, beings who would serve as the pinnacle of life. Sung Jin-Woo carefully cultivated these fruits, ensuring they gave rise to entities that embodied his divine will.

List of Godly Creatures Born from the Fruits of the God Tree

1. Eternals

Beings with bodies of pure energy, immune to all physical harm.

Capable of manipulating the fabric of reality to create or erase matter.

2. Nova Titans

Colossal entities with cores of burning starlight.

Possess strength and durability surpassing even Archangels.

3. Luminae Serpents

Divine serpents with scales of radiant light.

Masters of cosmic energy, capable of traversing dimensions effortlessly.

4. Abyss Wardens

Shadowy guardians who patrol the void and abyss.

Wield scythes forged from the roots of the God Tree, capable of severing souls.

5. Celestial Dryads

Sentient spirits of the God Tree’s branches.

Guardians of the tree itself, wielding nature’s most primal powers.

6. Starborn Phoenixes

Reborn from the flames of dying stars.

Emit cosmic fire capable of both creation and destruction.

7. Chrono Drakes

Time-manipulating dragons born from the God Tree’s temporal fruit.

Possess the ability to rewrite the flow of time across realms.

8. Eclipsian Colossi

Towering figures infused with light and shadow.

Act as the ultimate defenders of the God Tree and the Godverse.

9. Solarborn Griffins

Majestic hybrids of lion and eagle, glowing with solar brilliance.

Swift and ferocious, capable of summoning solar storms.

10. Omni-Wardens

Humanoid beings wielding weapons forged from the sap of the God Tree.

Serve as Sung Jin-Woo’s personal emissaries, carrying out his will directly.

The Role of the God Tree and Its Creatures

The God Tree served as more than a source of life—it became a cornerstone of Sung Jin-Woo’s Godverse. Its fruits provided the perfect balance of light, shadow, and divine energy, ensuring that the Godverse remained in harmony.

The godly creatures born from the God Tree were tasked with various roles:

Eternals and Nova Titans: Guardians of the Godverse, stationed at its borders to deter any threats.

Luminae Serpents and Abyss Wardens: Protectors of the realms and voids intertwined with the Godverse.

Celestial Dryads and Eclipsian Colossi: Caretakers of the God Tree and enforcers of balance.

A Beacon of Eternal Creation

Sung Jin-Woo stood beneath the towering God Tree, its golden fruits glowing softly in the divine light of the Godverse. Each fruit that fell from its branches gave rise to another godly being, another guardian of his creation.

“With the God Tree, life will continue to flourish,” he declared, his voice echoing across the infinite expanse. “And with these beings, the Godverse shall remain unshaken for eternity.”

The God Tree became a symbol of Sung Jin-Woo’s boundless creativity and absolute power, a testament to the perfection of his dominion.
